Key Knowledge

- The good news is not just about setting an example for good behaviour and challenging bad behaviour: it is that Jesus offers a way to heal the damage done by human sin.
- Christians see that Jesus' teachings and example cut across expectations – the Sermon on the Mount is an example of this, where Jesus' values favour serving the weak and vulnerable, not making people comfortable.
- Christians believe that they should bring this good news to life in the world in different ways, within their church family, in their personal lives, with family, with their neighbours, in the local, national and global community.

Christians try to be like Jesus and build their lives on the foundations of his teachings.

How did Jesus treat Peter after he denied him 3 times?

Why did Jesus tell the story / parable of the wise and foolish builders? Jesus is very clear that his words give the solid foundation for how we should be living. What is the moral of the story? Do you agree with it? Why?
