Key Knowledge
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Christians read the 'big story' of the Bible as pointing out the need for God to save people. This salvation includes the ongoing restoration of humans' relationship with God. The Gospels give accounts of Jesus' death and resurrection. The New Testament says that Jesus' death was somehow 'for us'. Christians interpret this in a variety of ways; for example, as a sacrifice for sin; as a victory over sin, death and the devil; paying the punishment as a substitute for everyone's sins; rescuing the lost and leading them to God; leading from darkness to light. Christians remember Jesus' sacrifice through the service of Holy Communion (also called the Lord's Supper, the Eucharist or the Mass). Christians believe that Jesus calls them to sacrifice their own needs to the needs of others, and some are prepared to die for others and for their faith.

2 Corinthians 4 vs 16-17
 In these verses we are told that people endured persecution and suffering but the promise that they would go to heaven kept them going. How do you feel about this?

Who was responsible for the death of Jesus?

Salvation is all about being rescued. Do you think we need to be rescued? What are we being rescued from?
